DEAR FRIENDS,

I am pleased and excited to share with you the main areas of activity and the accomplishments of the Jerusalem Foundation in 2022.

This past year has again seen the Jerusalem Foundation at the center of achievement and activity in the city, with direct impact on Jerusalem's long-term future. Our intention and aspiration is to build a city as a model for shared living, a diverse, pluralistic, tolerant and open city. A city that understands its greatest advantage is its communal diversity, a city that narrows the gaps between different communities and provides equal opportunities to everyone.

The Jerusalem Foundation vision for "Jerusalem 2030" compels us to advance the fields of communal strength, creative culture and to develop young leadership with a commitment to Jerusalem – a city that emphasizes its multi-cultural character and diversity – and sees this as its greatest asset.

The momentum of the last few years, and the re-establishment of the Jerusalem Foundation as the leader and initiator of major projects and programs, has resulted in new partnerships and a significant and continuous increase in fundraising income for the benefit of Jerusalem. The new initiatives, the building of trust, the ability to execute and innovate, have all led to a significant and continuous increase in the scope of our operations and projects. Of utmost importance is the strategic partnership with the Jerusalem Municipality and Mayor Moshe Lion, which brings us back to the days of our successful work with Mayor Teddy Kollek. Together with our partners and friends from around the world and with matching funds from the Municipality, the Jerusalem Foundation raised a record amount of over USD $51.6 million during 2022.

Even more important are the projects and programs that the record support we have received has enabled the Jerusalem Foundation to lead across the city which will have long term impact on the future of Jerusalem.

We have started construction in Beit Hanina of the first Community Sports Center and Pool in east Jerusalem, which is a ground-breaking project with long-term impact on shared living in the city and development of young leadership. The leadership of the Jerusalem Foundation on this project has confirmed its centrality to all philanthropy connected to Jerusalem.

The year 2022 also witnessed the completion of a number of major projects in Jerusalem, including the new High School building of the Max Rayne Hand in Hand School for Jewish-Arab Education, the Polinsky Vocational Training Center for youth with special needs, the establishment of additional libraries in schools in east Jerusalem and the completion of the upgrade and expansion of the Sir Charles Clore Hill Garden.

Major programs that are led and managed by the Jerusalem Foundation in our fields of activity include: the leadership program “Kayma – George Pinto Fellowships” for doctoral students, a gap-year of service for Jerusalem youth in Jerusalem in partnership with SAHI (Youth Hesed), the Tolerance Coalition of shared living organizations, City as a School, CultureSeries, “Jerusalem Stories”, the Innovation Fund for Culture and Community, Keren Lee – Social Impact Fund for the advancement of young social innovators and the Shared Living Fund, all of these and much more in this record year.

The great momentum of the Jerusalem Foundation is expected to continue in 2023. We are predicting an ongoing increase in our fundraising goals as can be seen in the trend of the past few years. More major projects are scheduled to be completed in 2023 and will be opened for use – Misgav Lekashish, a day center for ultra-Orthodox elderly, Beit HaShanti for homeless youth and youth at risk and more libraries in east Jerusalem schools. At the same time, we will begin construction on new projects – the Israel Center for Addictions new home in Jerusalem, Jerusalem Hassadna Conservatory building, new entrance pavilion to the Jerusalem Botanical Gardens, renovation and upgrade of well-baby clinics across Jerusalem and more. Together with the continuation and expansion of existing plans, we are also leading the advancement of long-term projects for development – the establishment of the first Magen David Adom First Aid Station in the center of east Jerusalem, a second Community Sports Center in the southern area of east Jerusalem, the renewal of the Sultan's Pool Hassenfeld Amphitheater and much more.

I want to thank all of our partners and friends around the world, who have made this momentum and growth possible. It has been wonderful to be able to host so many of you back in Jerusalem this past year and especially all of you who joined our Shared Living International Seminar. I know that it is important to all of us to see support for our efforts, also from within Israel and I am proud of the great progress in this area as well, as you will be able to see in the continuation of this Report.

These last months have shown us once again how important and relevant the work of the Jerusalem Foundation still remains. Our efforts in the field of shared living, development of future leadership and advancement of tolerance all stand at the center of public discourse in Israel today. The Jerusalem Foundation, unequivocally and in each of its areas of activity, shapes the future of the city, the future of civil society, and seeks to create a city that cares for all of its residents, that celebrates its diversity, closes gaps and provides equal opportunities for all. Jerusalem can and should be a model for all of Israel.

Shai Doron
President

ABOUT THE JERUSALEM FOUNDATION >

Jerusalem stands at the crossroads of civilization, faith and history, with relevance and meaning to billions of people around the world. It is also home to nearly a million people.

The Jerusalem Foundation was established in 1966 by the legendary Mayor of Jerusalem, Teddy Kollek. Over the last five decades, and through more than 4000 initiatives, the Foundation has touched the lives of all of Jerusalem's residents from all of the city's communities.

We identify and respond to the needs of Jerusalem, improve the quality of life for all residents, and create opportunities for ALL. The social fabric of the city is continuously being tested and challenged, and the need for communal strength is more pressing than ever as we work to close social gaps and support the most vulnerable populations in the city.

We promote creative culture, supporting cultural institutions to innovate and adapt to changing needs of cultural consumers. The future of Jerusalem will be determined by its young leaders and we continue to support the development of the next generation in the city.

We can take pride in the Foundation's more than half-century of achievement that has shaped the modern city's landscape even as we continue to adapt to the evolving needs of Jerusalem's diverse population and invest in its development. We are committed to building philanthropic partnerships, working hand in hand with the Jerusalem Municipality, and cooperating with the city's major organizations to preserve the city's past, ensure its resilience and lay the groundwork for a dynamic future.

VISION >

The Foundation seeks to shape the future of Jerusalem by investing in and creating a flourishing city as a source of inspiration for its people and the world.

MISSION >

To shape a modern, open and vibrant city by developing communal strength for all Jerusalem residents; to identify and respond to the needs of Jerusalem, enhancing Jerusalem's contribution to people of all faiths, sharing the city with our partners and friends worldwide and inspiring new generations to take part in Jerusalem's future.

COMMUNAL STRENGTH

HIGHLIGHT

The Café Europa program is conducted in four centers throughout Jerusalem, serving survivors across the city through regular activity groups, visits to homebound elderly, and help in understanding and accessing legal rights and benefits. Following a long period of online activity due to the COVID-19 pandemic, program participants “voted with their feet” and were delighted to return to in-person activities in the various groups. Programming included a moving event marking Holocaust Remembrance Day, during which we hosted the Ambassadors to Israel of the European Union countries, including presentation of a survivor’s testimony and a panel of survivors who shared their life experiences today in Jerusalem. The program reached 1,500 survivors in Jerusalem in 2022.

The background of the slide is a photograph of an interior room. On the left, there is a doorway leading to another room. The floor is covered with a large, patterned rug. On the right, a mirror is mounted on the wall, reflecting part of the room. The overall lighting is warm and the colors are muted.

FUTURE LEADERSHIP

HIGHLIGHT

SAHI Youth Hesed Community Leadership Program

The SAHI community service leadership gap year program in Jerusalem for high school graduates was inaugurated in 2022. This pioneering program is a significant new opportunity for young people from Jerusalem's social and economic peripheries who do not typically participate in leadership training and gap year experiences.

[Israel Stories Podcast Broadcasting Studio at the Jerusalem Foundation]

PROGRAMS IN FUTURE LEADERSHIP

The George Pinto ('Kayma') Jerusalem Leadership Fellows Program – The Jerusalem Foundation's distinguished doctorate fellows program began its third consecutive year of activities with men and women doctoral students joining the Kayma community.

The Social Impact Fund (Keren Lee) – established by Israeli donors to support young Jerusalemites with startup Jerusalem projects or the expansion of existing sustainable initiatives in the spheres of social services, community, culture, art, creativity, sports and leisure.

- Jerusalem Artists Residency at Old Shaare Zedek Hospital – Free residency lodging and workspace enabled Jerusalem artists to engage in creativity, yielding over 90 art pieces and an exhibition viewed by 3,500 visitors.
- HaMiffal – Increased 35 emerging Jerusalem artists' activity in Jerusalem and exposure, pushing sales of their art to exceed expectation of NIS 190,000 per year to NIS 235,400
- Israel Story - The largest and most listened-to Jewish and Israeli podcast in the world
 - Over 1.2 million listeners in more than 190 countries
 - 16 Jerusalem Story events throughout Jerusalem
- Cooperative Community Bars in three peripheral neighborhoods where there are no other open businesses where people can sit, socialize and enjoy music after 8 pm. 3 bars, 250 cultural events and over 2,500 residents impacted

Israel Scouts – This project provides special leadership training for in-depth community work and cooperation with the local community center for the youth movement's branches in peripheral areas, transforming the branches into a significant community force in the neighborhoods.

[SidraTarbut - CultureSeries - a series of culture events with Jerusalem artists, in all neighborhoods of the city and for all communities with the support of the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Foundation]

Goldstein Prize for Good Citizenship

This year awarded to the following young leaders for their community initiatives – impacting over 10,000 children and youth across the city:

- Israel Scouts in Jerusalem for its innovative Shared Living Social Action Group, combining religious and secular youth in a community service program where participants reside and volunteer together at Hadassah Hospital by teaching hospitalized chronically or terminally ill children in the hospital school and summer camp.
- The Shlavim organization and Yachdav Youth Movement for its innovative environmental preservation and education program, conducted with 50 pupils in grades 6 and 7 from a Haredi middle school involving the programming and use of robots to collect litter and alert users of sources of pollution, teaching about reusable resources.
- Youth Movements and Hartman High School for their ‘My Senior’ project providing vital weekly social interaction and the packing and delivery of Sabbath and holiday meals to isolated elderly in the community throughout the year.

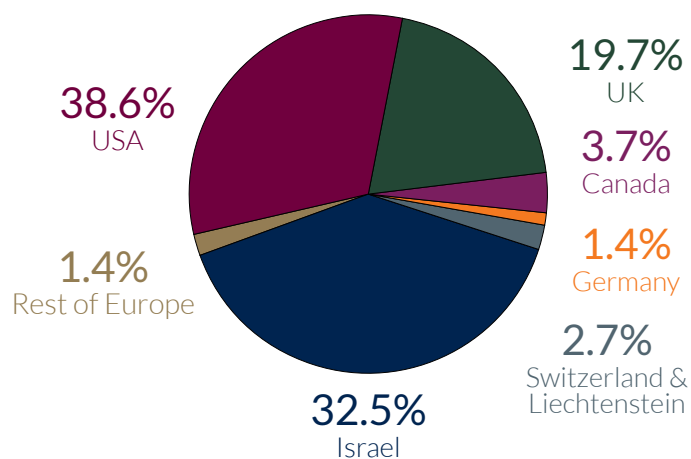

Bloomfield Science Museum Young Scientists Competition – Annual 3-day competition of excelling students of diverse backgrounds and sectors from science schools throughout Israel at the museum; 38 (including 19 girls) reached the final stage of the competition, with 18 winners.

Jerusalem Scholarship Fund distributed about 2,000 scholarships to students who volunteered, each giving 140 hours of their time to a variety of non-profit organizations and civil society institutions. The aim of these scholarships is to assist students, encourage them to study at Jerusalem’s higher education institutions and connect them with Jerusalem and its residents.
